LITTRELL & FABRIS JOIN IU

Seth Littrell and Jon Fabris joined the Hoosiers coaching staff in the off-season. Littrell will serve as offensive coordinator and coach the tight ends and fullbacks, while Fabris will coach the defensive ends.

Littrell arrives in Bloomington from the University of Arizona, where his 2011 offense ranked third nationally in passing offense (370.8) and 15th in total offense (465.2). He spent three seasons in Tucson (2009-11) after a four-year stint as running backs coach at Texas Tech University.

A University of Oklahoma graduate, Littrell has coached in seven bowl games, played in two and was team captain on Oklahoma's 2000 national championship team. A four-year letterwinner at OU, Littrell rushed for 231 yards and seven touchdowns in 1999 and finished his career with 11 rushing scores.

Fabris brings 29 years of experience and has coached in 12 bowl games, including five BCS bowls.

He has worked at Georgia Tech, Washington State, Iowa State, Notre Dame, Kansas State, South Carolina, the Cleveland Browns and most recently with Northwest Mississippi Community College in 2011 following an 18-month coaching hiatus after a nine-year stint at Georgia.

In his 12 seasons coaching defensive ends at Georgia, South Carolina and Kansas State, 15 of his players earned spots on NFL regular season rosters.

FROSH IN THE GAME

Kevin Wilson made it no secret that he was not afraid to play true freshmen, and he certainly lived up to his word by playing 16 in 2011, tied for the third most in the country. Additionally, 16 redshirt

YOUTH WAS SERVED

Indiana started 46 different players in 12 games last season:

- Eleven true freshmen, six redshirt freshmen and 10 sophomores appeared in the starting lineup.
- In all, 23.9 percent of the 2011 starters were true freshmen, 37 percent were freshmen and 58.7 percent were underclassmen.

• Indiana started seven freshmen on defense (four true and three redshirt) and five freshmen on offense (four true and one redshirt) against Northwestern. The 12 total freshmen, eight true freshmen and the seven total freshmen defensive starters were the most by a FBS team in a game last year.

FRESHMEN HONORED

Indiana linebacker Chase Hoobler, safety Mark Murphy and offensive lineman Bernard Taylor collected freshman postseason honors following the 2011 campaign. Murphy and Taylor secured spots on Yahoo Sports, BTN.com and ESPN.com Big Ten All-Freshman teams, while Hoobler earned accolades from Yahoo Sports and BTN.com.

True freshman quarterback Tre Roberson and true freshman kick returner Shane Wynn received honorable mention recognition from BTN.com.

A true freshman out of Akron, Ohio, Murphy finished second on the team with 76 tackles and led the way with 44 solos to go along with one interception, which he returned 31 yards for a touchdown, one tackle for loss and four pass break-ups. He played in all 12 games, started three times at weak-side linebacker and the last six games at safety.

Murphy led Big Ten true freshmen with his 76 tackles and recorded at least eight tackles five times. His 76 tackles were the most for an IU true freshman since Will Meyers had 83 in 2003.

Taylor became the first true freshman to play on the offensive line for the Hoosiers in 2011. He appeared in 11 of the team's 12 games and started the last 10 at left guard. Facing some of the top defensive tackles in the country, Taylor allowed only three sacks in 295 passing attempts.

Hoobler finished with 48 tackles, 23 solo, two sacks, five tackles for loss and one forced fumble. The redshirt freshman started eight games, including six times in the Big Ten, and played in all 12 games.

SCHOOL RECORD ALL-BIG TEN

A school record 24 Indiana football student-athletes earned Academic All-Big Ten honors. The 24 Hoosier honorees were the third-highest total in the league. Student-athletes must be in at least their second academic year at their institution and carry a grade point average of 3.0 or better to be eligible.

IU's honorees included Pete Bachman, Leon Beckum, David Blackwell, Charlie Chapman, Connor Creevey, Griffen Dahlstrom, Max Dedmond, Cody Evers, Mitch Ewald, Josh Hager, Greg Heban, Bill Ivan, Dusty Kiel, John Lahinen, Will Matte, Jake Michalek, Paul Phillips, Ryan Phillips, Adam Replogle, Lee Rose, Teddy Schell, Ishmael Thomas, Alexander Webb and Jake Zupancic.

MR. ROBERSON'S NEIGHBORHOOD

Tre Roberson became the first true freshman quarterback in Indiana history to start when he took the field at Iowa on Oct. 22. He was one of just 12 true freshman quarterbacks nationally to start at least one game.

Roberson celebrated his 19th birthday by becoming the third Hoosier (running back D'Angelo Roberts and kick returner Shane Wynn) to earn Big Ten Freshman of the Week honors against the Hawkeyes. He completed 16-of-24 (66.7 percent) for 197 yards and a touchdown with zero interceptions. Roberson also rushed for 84 yards on 16 carries (5.2 average).

He started the rest of the way (five games) and was 68-of-120 (56.7) with 779 yards, three TDs and five INTs to go along with 364 rushing yards on 85 carries (4.3) with one score.

On the season, Roberson was 81-of-142 (57.0) with 937 yards, three touchdowns and six interceptions to go along with 426 rushing yards on 109 carries (3.9) with two scores in nine games.

His 426 rushing yards were second on the team and third among true freshman quarterbacks nationally (Braxton Miller, Ohio State - 695 and Brett Smith, Wyoming - 555).

Roberson became only the second true freshman QB to play at Indiana. In 1977, Tim Clifford completed 8-of-15 for 143 yards with one touchdown, one interception and 25 rushing yards in one half of work.

GROUND GAINS

The Hoosiers rushed for 1,374 yards in league play last season, the program's highest total since 2001, and posted 1,932 overall, the program's highest total since 2008. Indiana's running backs lost just one fumble in 272 attempts.

Sophomore Stephen Houston rushed for 802 yards (5.3 average) and eight touchdowns overall and 711 yards (5.5) and seven scores in Big Ten play.

His 711 yards were the most for a Hoosier in conference action since 2003 (BenJarvus Green-Ellis - 784) and his seven TDs were the most since 2001 (Levon Williams - 16).

The Hoosiers posted five overall games with 200-plus rushing yards, including a 319-yard effort against Northwestern, the most for Indiana in a conference game since 2003. IU collected three straight 200-plus yard rushing games - at No. 4 Wisconsin (223), at Iowa (217) and against Northwestern - for the first time in league action since 2001.

The Hoosiers posted these numbers despite using seven different offensive line starting lineups and starting three freshmen - Bernard Taylor (true - 10 starts), Collin Rahrig (redshirt - eight) and Peyton Eckert (true - six).

2012 SIGNING CLASS

Twenty-five student-athletes signed National Letters of Intent to play for the Hoosiers in 2012.

IU signed 13 on defense, 11 on offense and one athlete. The Hoosiers added six defensive linemen, four defensive backs and three linebackers on the defensive side and four offensive linemen, two quarterbacks, two wide receivers, two tight ends and one running back on the offensive side.

The class features players from 10 different states, including eight from Indiana, three from Illinois and Ohio, two from California, Florida, Georgia and Texas, and one from Arizona, Mississippi and Missouri.

2011-: Head Coach

- One of the most innovative and prolific offensive minds in the country, Kevin Wilson was named Indiana University's 28th head football coach on Dec. 7, 2010.

- Spent the 2002-10 seasons at the University of Oklahoma. He served as co-offensive coordinator and offensive line coach from 2002-05 and as offensive coordinator and tight ends and fullbacks coach from 2006-10.

- Led some of the most productive offenses in the history of college football, coached in 10 consecutive bowl games and made seven BCS bowl appearances, including three national championship games (2003, '04, '08).

- OU played in seven Big 12 Title games in Wilson's nine years, going 6-1 in those appearances. His offenses were vital to accumulating an overall record of 99-24 (.805) during his time in Norman, including seven 10-win seasons.

- In Wilson's nine years at Oklahoma, 22 offensive players were drafted into the NFL, including seven first-round selections, with three going among the first 10 picks and two in the top five.

- Served as position coach for three All-Americans, an Outland Trophy winner (Jammal Brown), a Mackey Award finalist (Jermaine Gresham) and a two-time Rimington Trophy finalist (Vince Carter).

- Twice a finalist for the Frank Broyles Award - awarded to the nation's top assistant coach, Wilson won the award in 2008.

- As position coach, Wilson tutored three first-round draft picks (Jermaine Gresham, TE - 2010, Davin Joseph, OL - 2006 and Jammal Brown, OL - 2005), a second-round pick (Chris Chester, OL - 2005), a fifth-round pick (Brody Eldridge, TE - 2010), a sixth-round pick (Wes Sims, OL - 2004) and six free agents at Oklahoma.

- Indiana played 32 freshmen last season, the highest total in the country. Linebacker Chase Hoobler, safety Mark Murphy and offensive lineman Bernard Taylor each collected freshman postseason honors.

- Murphy and Taylor secured spots on the Yahoo Sports, BTN.com and ESPN.com Big Ten All-Freshman teams, while Hoobler earned accolades from Yahoo Sports and BTN.com.

- The Hoosiers excelled in the classroom as well. A school record 24 football student-athletes earned Academic All-Big Ten honors, 37 posted 3.0 grade point averages in the fall and 36 currently hold cumulative 3.0 GPAs.

- In 2010, the Sooners earned a 48-20 victory over Connecticut in the Fiesta Bowl and also claimed the seventh Big 12 championship in school history.

• During the 2010 campaign, running back DeMarco Murray set the school record for career touchdowns and also broke the OU mark for career all-purpose yards.

• Guided wide receiver Ryan Broyles to eight Sooner receiving records, including career marks for receptions, receiving yards and touchdowns. Broyles led the nation with 131 receptions in 2010.

• His 2008 offense shattered NCAA records by scoring 60 or more points in five straight games and 716 total points for the entire season to average more than 51 points per contest.

• The 2008 team played in the BCS National Championship Game behind Heisman Trophy-winning quarterback Sam Bradford.

• In 2008, Bradford passed for 4,720 yards and 50 touchdowns, Chris Brown and DeMarco Murray both rushed for over 1,000 yards, Juquan Iglesias caught 74 balls for 1,150 yards and Jermaine Gresham added 66 catches for 950 yards.

• Bradford ranked No. 1 nationally in passing efficiency as a freshman in 2007 and again in 2008, as he threw for more touchdowns (86) in two seasons than anyone in NCAA history.

• In the 2010 NFL Draft, Bradford was selected with the No. 1 overall pick by the St. Louis Rams. He captured the 2010 Associated Press NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year honor.

• Three of Wilson's tight ends, Jermaine Gresham, Brody Eldridge and Joe Jon Finley, earned All-Big 12 honors in 2007.

• Wilson was also instrumental in the development of Adrian Peterson. Peterson rushed for 1,925 yards in his freshman campaign (2004), which set an OU single-season record and marked the highest total for a freshman in NCAA history.

• Peterson went on to place second in the Heisman voting, the highest finish ever by a freshman. He was drafted by the Minnesota Vikings as the seventh pick in the 2007 NFL Draft, where he was named the AP Offensive Rookie of the Year.

• Prior to his stint in Norman, Wilson was promoted to assistant head coach and offensive coordinator at Northwestern University in 2001 after serving as offensive coordinator in 1999 and 2000. He worked with the quarterbacks during his time in Evanston.

The Wilson Family

WHAT PEOPLE ARE SAYING ABOUT KEVIN WILSON...

"We want to thank Kevin for his role in helping our program win six Big 12 Championships over the last nine seasons. His attention to detail, innovation and ability to develop players to their fullest ability have helped us remain a strong program. Our offenses have been effective because they're multiple and dynamic, and yet loyal to the basic football principles of being physical and fundamentally sound. By going to Indiana, Kevin returns to a region of the country and a conference that he knows very well. He'll have a solid plan for the football program there and the dedication required to carry it out. Kevin, Angie and the entire Wilson family leave with our gratitude for a job well done with the Sooners, and our best wishes for continued success with the Hoosiers."

-BOB STOOPS-
Oklahoma Head Football Coach

"Coach Wilson is a great coach. Playing in his system definitely prepared me for the NFL and what I am doing right now. If you look at what he did with our offense at Oklahoma, it speaks volumes about the coach he is. He has a great feel for offense, is a people person and has a great personality. He will have a lot of success at Indiana and is a great hire."

-SAM BRADFORD- St. Louis Rams
Quarterback, 2010 No. 1 Overall Pick

"I know about Kevin through his relationship with Randy Walker, who was like a son to me. Randy had the greatest respect for Kevin and he really thought he was an excellent coach. Kevin has a tremendous coaching background and is a good, quality coach and person."

-BILL MALLORY-
Former IU Head Football Coach (1984-96)

"IU Fans should get excited because a great coach is coming to town and he is going to do great things there. Coach Wilson deserves a lot of the credit for where I am now."

-BRODY ELDRIDGE-
St. Louis Rams Tight End

"I've been following Kevin in his career for a long time. The interesting thing about this marriage between Kevin and Indiana is his background with Randy Walker at Miami (Ohio) and Northwestern. Kevin is very familiar with the Big Ten and the Midwest, spending time there before moving on to a dominant program like Oklahoma. He's grown so much at Oklahoma, too. When you combine his knowledge, his background and his ability to recruit; I think it's a perfect fit for what IU is looking for."

-KIRK HERBSTREIT-
ESPN College Football Analyst

"Over the years we at the Colts have developed the highest regard for Coach Stoops and the Oklahoma program. We know that Coach Wilson brings the most solid of values and implementation with him from OU. In addition, we had the pleasure of drafting Brody Eldridge and saw first hand how fundamentally sound and well prepared he was. I am certain that is a direct reflection of what Coach Wilson did with the OU offense. I think Hoosier fans will be excited about the total program and offensive approach that Coach Wilson will bring to Bloomington. We wish him the best in his new position."

-BILL POLIAN-
NFL Executive

"Having worked with Kevin at Miami (Ohio) for two years (1994-95) while he was offensive coordinator and offensive line coach, I know that he takes the job as head coach at Indiana University prepared with tremendous experience, and an understanding of what is required to be successful."

-SEAN PAYTON-
New Orleans Saints Head Coach

"With being at Oklahoma for the last nine years, he knows exactly what it takes to win. Add in his previous experience coaching and playing in the Midwest, and I think he has the right combination to make a nice fit for Indiana. He has some A-grades in many of the categories that administrators and IU fans would like to see."

-ANTWAAN RANDLE EL- Former NFL
Wide Receiver & Hoosier Great

"I'm excited for the future of Indiana Football and what Kevin Wilson brings to the university. His background as a coach, his ability to develop student-athletes and his strong family values make him an excellent candidate to lead the Hoosiers."

-TRENT GREEN-
Former NFL & IU Quarterback

"When you play for Coach Wilson, your best is expected at all times. Excuses are few and far between. I've played for some great offensive line coaches, but he is the best I've played for as a complete person. Not only is he a great coach, but a great father, a great friend and a great person. He really pushed me. Challenged me as a player, challenged me as a student; all to make me a complete person. Since then he's always had a special place in my heart."

THE OLD BRASS SPITTOON

The Old Brass Spittoon has been awarded to the winner of the Indiana-Michigan State football game since the trophy's inception in 1950.

The trophy was initiated by the junior and senior classes and student council at Michigan State and was quickly accepted by the Indiana Student Senate.

The spittoon came from one of Michigan's earliest trading posts and is widely believed to be nearly 200 years old. Legend holds that the spittoon was around when both institutions were founded (IU - 1820, MSU - 1855).

Indiana and Michigan State have faced each other since 1922 and the trophy became a part of the series 28 years after the first meeting.

THE OLD OAKEN BUCKET

The symbol of football supremacy between Indiana and Purdue, the Old Oaken Bucket, has become one of the nation's most recognized and famed trophies in its 87 years of spirited rivalry.

Both institutions had been meeting on the football field since 1891 when the Indiana and Purdue Alumni Clubs of Chicago held a joint meeting in 1925 to "discuss the possibility of undertaking a worthy joint enterprise on behalf of the two schools." Dr. Clarence Jones proposed the creation of a traditional football trophy to go to the winner of the annual clash. Dr. Jones and Russel Gray of Purdue were appointed to recommend a suitable trophy by J. Frank Lindsey, (Indiana, class of 1913), who was elected chairman of the joint committee.

At a later meeting they recommended "an old oaken bucket as the most typical Hoosier form of trophy, that the bucket should be taken from some well in Indiana, and that a chain to be made of bronze block 'I' and 'P' letters should be provided for the bucket. The school winning the traditional football game each year should have possession of the 'Old Oaken Bucket' until the next game and should attach the block letter representing the winning school to the bail with the score engraved on the latter link."

Fritz Ernst of Purdue and Indiana's Wiley J. Huddle were given the task of finding the bucket. They located it on the old Bruner Farm between Kent and Hanover in southern Indiana. The region had been settled by the Bruner family in the 1840s, making today's bucket well over 150 years of age.

Excellent repair work put the bucket, moss and mold-covered with some staves showing signs of decay, into good shape for its initial appearance, which ended in a 0-0 tie in 1925.

SMITHVILLE CRIMSON & GOLD CUP

The rivalry between Indiana and Purdue continues with the 2012-13 Smithville Crimson & Gold Cup. The overall winner of the contest is awarded a trophy at the end of the season.

Indiana defeated Purdue by an 11-5-7-5 total to capture the 2011-12 Smithville Crimson & Gold Cup. The Hoosiers lead the all-sports competition between the two schools, 5-1-2.

Each sport can earn one point toward the overall championship. A total of 20 points can be won. The winner of regular season head-to-head competition earns the point for its institution. Should the teams split or tie in regular season competition the point is split between the two institutions. If the two institutions do not compete in a head-to-head regular season competition, the team that places higher at the Big Ten Championships will be awarded the point.

BOWL HISTORY

1968 ROSE BOWL JANUARY 1, 1968 • PASADENA, CALIF.

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA 14 INDIANA 3

On Nov. 25, 1967, Indiana University improved its record to 9-1 with a 19-14 upset win over Purdue in the regular-season finale. The win clinched the Big Ten title and secured the Hoosiers' initial postseason bid - a trip to the Rose Bowl and a tilt against top-ranked and O.J. Simpson-led Southern California. Remarkably, just one season earlier in 1966, Indiana had finished the season with a 1-8-1 record.

IU's only Rose Bowl appearance would not be an easy task for the Hoosiers. However, 102,946 fans watched intently as Indiana would give the Trojans everything they could handle for four quarters.

USC tallied first when All-America running back Simpson (25-128-2TDs rushing) scored on a 2-yard touchdown run in the first quarter to cap an 84-yard scoring drive. Indiana would answer just one quarter later. The Hoosiers had a first-and-goal inside the Southern California 10-yard line but could not score a touchdown. However, Indiana kicker David Kornowa did connect on a 27-yard field goal attempt that pulled the Hoosiers to within 7-3, a lead that USC would take into the locker room at halftime.

In the third quarter, the Trojans put together their final scoring drive of the day. This time it was a 45-yard drive capped by an eight-yard touchdown run by Simpson. The "Cardiac Kids," a nickname that IU had been given because of several exciting comebacks throughout the 1967 campaign, would threaten one more time but could not close the gap. IU moved to the USC 37-yard line midway through the fourth stanza but failed on two chances to gain a first down with just inches to go.

1979 HOLIDAY BOWL

DECEMBER 21, 1979 • SAN DIEGO, CALIF.

INDIANA 38
BRIGHAM YOUNG 37

Many people described it as the most exciting game of the 1979 bowl season. The 1979 Holiday Bowl featured Indiana and Brigham Young. The two squads would combine to score 75 total points in addition to tallying 52 first downs and 874 yards of total offense. However, after eight lead changes, Indiana stood victorious, 38-37, over the previously unbeaten Cougars.

Having finished the 1979 regular season with a 7-4 record, Indiana looked to gain its initial bowl victory when it faced off against the Cougars.

It was a tight battle throughout as Brigham Young quarterback Marc Wilson completed 28-of-43 passes for 380 yards and 2 TDs. Throughout the game, he showed many reasons why he led the nation in passing and total offense during the regular season. However, IU found a way to answer every BYU score.

The Cougars would take a 24-21 lead early in the third quarter, but IU tallied right back when running back Mike Harkrader (24-71-1TD rushing) scored on a 1-yard touchdown run to give the Hoosiers a 28-24 lead. Indiana kicker Kevin Kellogg would then connect on a 26-yard field goal to increase the IU lead to 31-24. However, a 29-yard field goal by BYU and a 15-yard touchdown strike from Wilson to fullback Eric Lane, put the Cougars in front, 34-31, at the end of three quarters.

The fourth quarter did not lack for theatrics. BYU would score the quarter's first points to increase its lead to 37-31. However, Indiana's Tim Wilbur countered with a 62-yard punt return to tie the game at 37-37. Kellogg would add the extra point to give IU a one-point advantage with 6:53 remaining in the contest. Brigham Young had the opportunity to win the contest on a field goal attempt with just 11 seconds remaining. However, a 27-yard effort by Cougar kicker Brent Johnson failed, and IU held on for the thrilling 38-37 victory.

BOWL HISTORY

1986 ALL-AMERICAN BOWL DECEMBER 31, 1986 • BIRMINGHAM, ALA.

FLORIDA STATE 27 INDIANA 13

Although he finished with an 0-11 record during his first campaign at Indiana in 1984, it would take Bill Mallory just three seasons to lead the Hoosiers to their first bowl appearance under his direction. Indiana finished with a 6-5 regular-season record in 1986 and capped its season by playing a talented Florida State team in the 1986 All-American Bowl on New Year's Eve in Birmingham, Ala.

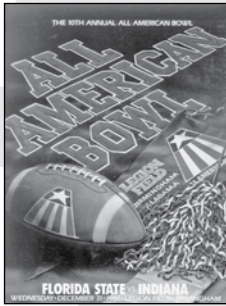

Despite losing 27-13, the Hoosiers would go on to make bowl appearances following four of the next five seasons.

Florida State used four time-consuming scoring drives that averaged 66 yards each to capture the 10th annual All-American Bowl. IU penetrated inside the Seminole 35-yard line four times without a score.

Indiana would tally first as Pete Stoyanovich connected on a 35-yard field goal to give the Hoosiers a 3-0 lead. However, Florida State running back Sammie Smith (25-205-2TDs) scored on runs of four and nine yards in the first and second quarters, respectively, to give the Seminoles a 13-3 halftime lead.

The Seminoles would score another touchdown during the third quarter that would essentially clinch the victory. IU did close the gap to within 20-13 in the fourth quarter, but FSU iced the game with a 68-yard scoring drive.

Indiana running back Anthony Thompson, who was playing in his first bowl game, finished with 127 rushing yards on 28 carries and quarterback Dave Kramme threw for 168 yards. IU dominated the time of possession and totaled more first downs (23-20) and total yards (383-342) than Florida State. However, the Seminoles rushed for 288 yards and were forced into third-down situations on just three occasions during the entire game.

BOWL HISTORY

1988 PEACH BOWL JANUARY 2, 1988 • ATLANTA, GA.

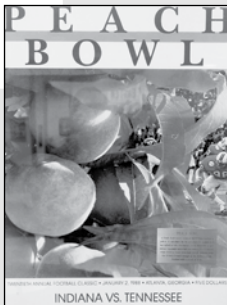

TENNESSEE 27 INDIANA 22

Tennessee drove 40 yards in nine plays and scored on a 9-yard touchdown run by running back Reggie Cobb with just 1:52 remaining in the game to clinch a 27-22 victory over Indiana in the 20th Peach Bowl. The game, which was played on Jan. 2, 1988, at Atlanta's Fulton County Stadium, was witnessed by 58,737 fans. Despite the disappointing loss, IU finished the season with an 8-4 record, which included wins over Michigan and Ohio State.

The Volunteers jumped to a quick 21-3 second-quarter lead. That same stanza, UT blocked an Indiana punt on the IU 9-yard line that gave the Volunteers an opportunity to put the game out of reach. However, IU forced a fumble and drove 91 yards for a touchdown, a 43-yard pass play from quarterback Dave Schnell (33-18-218-1TD-2INTs) to wide receiver Ernie Jones (7-150-1TD). The score narrowed IU's deficit to 21-10 prior to halftime.

The lone score of the third period was a 12-yard run by running back Anthony Thompson (18-67-1TD) that moved Indiana to within 21-16, however, the two-point conversion failed. In the fourth quarter, Indiana scored on a fake field goal attempt when tight end Tim Jorden ran 12 yards for a score that gave IU a one-point lead, 22-21. The two-point conversion attempt was unsuccessful. Tennessee, which had come from behind on four other occasions during the 1987 campaign would turn the trick again as Cobb scored his second touchdown of the game, this one a 9-yard run, to give Tennessee the 27-22 victory.

Tennessee gained 474 yards of total offense, including 146 rushing yards and two touchdowns from Cobb, the game's Most Valuable Offensive Player. However, Jones was just as impressive, as he finished with 246 all-purpose yards (150 receiving, 15 rushing, 81 kickoff returns). Indiana linebacker Van Waiters was recognized as the game's Most Valuable Defensive Player.

BOWL HISTORY

1988 LIBERTY BOWL DECEMBER 28, 1988 • MEMPHIS, TENN.

INDIANA 34 SOUTH CAROLINA 10

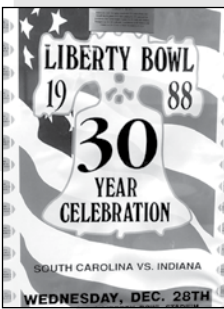

After finishing the regular season with a 7-3-1 record and a 5-3 mark in the Big Ten, Indiana earned a postseason berth for the third consecutive year and played South Carolina in the Liberty Bowl in Memphis, Tenn. The Hoosiers dominated the game and cruised to a 34-10 victory before 39,210 fans.

Indiana running back Anthony Thompson (26-140-2TDs) began the scoring with a 7-yard touchdown run in the first quarter, and the Hoosiers would add 10 more second-quarter points to take a 17-0 halftime lead. The Gamecocks would close the gap to 17-7 in the third quarter when they scored on a 34-yard return of a blocked punt. The two teams would then trade third-quarter field goals and the fourth quarter began with Indiana leading, 20-10.

Although Indiana dominated throughout, the game-breaking play occurred on the first snap of the fourth quarter when Indiana quarterback Dave Schnell (31-16-378-2TDs-1INT) hooked up with wide receiver Rob Turner (5-182-1TD) on an 88-yard touchdown pass that upped IU's lead to 27-10. Thompson would cap the scoring with an 8-yard touchdown run later that quarter that earned him a tie for the Big Ten single-season touchdown record with 26 scores.

Indiana set a Liberty Bowl record with 575 yards of total offense. South Carolina, on the other hand, could muster only 153 total yards, including just 23 yards rushing. The IU defense intercepted three passes and recovered a fumble to go along with six quarterback sacks.

Schnell was the game's Most Valuable Player, and wide receiver Tony Buford caught three passes for 100 yards.

BOWL HISTORY

1990 PEACH BOWL DECEMBER 30, 1990 • ATLANTA, GA.

AUBURN 27
INDIANA 23

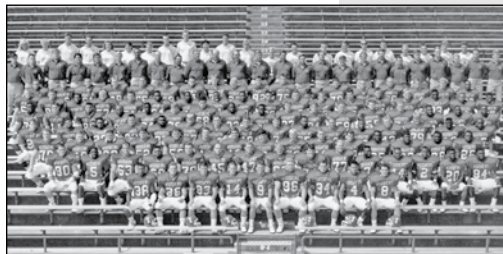

Indiana finished with a 6-4-1 regular-season record in 1990, a mark good enough to earn the Hoosiers a berth in the Peach Bowl for a date with the Auburn Tigers. The game, which was played at Fulton County Stadium in Atlanta on Dec. 30, 1990, was one of the best games played during the 1990 bowl season.

Auburn led Indiana 17-10 at half-time and increased its lead to 20-10 on a 43-yard field goal during the third quarter, but the Hoosiers returned the favor as quarterback Trent Green scored on touchdown runs of two and 11 yards to give IU a 23-20 lead.

However, Auburn quarterback Stan White (48-31-351-1TD passing and 2 TD runs) would direct the Tigers on a 13-play, 72-yard, 1:40-minute, scoring drive. He capped the drive himself when he scored on a 1-yard run with just 39 seconds remaining in the game. The touchdown gave Auburn a 27-23 victory.

Auburn dominated the game statistically, as the Tigers tallied 440 total yards to IU's 220. However, Indiana utilized a solid kicking game to keep the game close. Trent Green tied a Peach Bowl record with his three rushing touchdowns while running back Vaughn Dunbar (21-81) and free safety Mike Dumas (14 tackles, 4 passes broken up) earned offensive and defensive Most Valuable Player honors, respectively.

INDIANA 24 BAYLOR 0

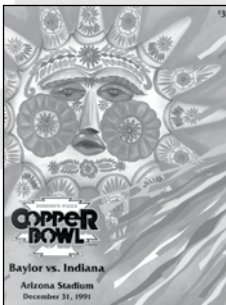

In one of the most impressive performances by any team during the 1991 bowl season, Indiana dominated a highly-regarded Baylor team in the Copper Bowl, 24-0.

Indiana wasted little time getting started as it jumped to a 17-0 halftime lead and was never threatened on its way to winning its second bowl game in four years.

Indiana quarterback Trent Green (21-11-165-0-0 passing, 2 rushing touchdowns) broke the Hoosiers into the scoring column when he tallied a 1-yard touchdown run in the first quarter. IU would increase its lead one quarter later when kicker Scott Bonnell connected on a 27-yard field goal attempt and running back Vaughn Dunbar (28-106-1TD rushing) scored on a 5-yard touchdown run to give the Hoosiers a 17-0 halftime advantage.

IU's only scary moment came in the third quarter when Baylor reached Indiana's 2-yard line. However, a muffed handoff resulted in a fumble that was recovered in the end zone by free safety Damon Watts and the game was, for all intents and purposes, over.

Dunbar won game Most Valuable Player honors on offense and line-backer Mark Hagen (11 tackles, including 2 tackles for loss, and 1 pass broken up) was the game's defensive MVP.

BOWL HISTORY

2007 INSIGHT BOWL DECEMBER 31, 2007 • TEMPE, ARIZ.

OKLAHOMA STATE 49 INDIANA 33

Indiana capped off an emotional season in achieving late head coach Terry Hooppner's dream of "Playing 13," as the Hoosiers returned to a postseason bowl for the first time in 14 years at the 2007 Insight Bowl.

Oklahoma State's no-huddle offense took a strong first half lead, and it was too much for a spirited Hoosier squad to overcome in a 49-33 defeat. The Hoosiers rallied from a 35-10 half-time deficit to get within two scores on two separate occasions in the second half.

Kellen Lewis threw for 204 yards and a pair of touchdowns in the loss, tying IU great Antwaan Randle El for first place on the all-time list with 42 TD passes in his career. The sophomore quarterback also ran for 83 yards on 10 carries and scored a touchdown on the ground.

The Hoosiers drove 52 yards on 11 plays on their opening drive, taking a 3-0 lead on Austin Starr's 43-yard field goal at the 10:41 mark of the opening quarter. But OSU scored the next 28 points of the game before the Hoosiers made it 28-10 on a Marcus Thigpen 4-yard TD grab. Cowboy quarterback Zac Robinson tacked on a 1-yard run just before the half to give OSU a 25-point lead at the break.

IU struck with the first points of the second half on a Lewis 1-yard run that followed a 4th-and-8 conversion on a fake field goal pass from Lewis to Starr. The Cowboys rebutted with a TD of their own, and 16 fourth quarter points by the Hoosiers proved to not be enough to overcome the early deficit.

ALL-TIME COACHES

BOB HICKS • 1957

CAREER RECORD AT INDIANA: 1-8

BIG TEN RECORD AT INDIANA: 0-6

Bob Hicks served as Indiana's interim head coach for one season prior to becoming its head line coach when Phil Dickens assumed the head coach's role. Hicks served as head coach for a season as Dickens sat out for alleged recruiting violations. A 1948 graduate of Tennessee, Hicks played on the line for UT. After five years coaching at the high school level, he received his first opportunity to coach as a member of Dickens' staff at Wyoming, where he helped build highly competitive lines for the Cowboys' powerhouse clubs. Hicks would coach on the IU staff for 16 years.

PHIL DICKENS • 1958-1964

BIG TEN RECORD AT INDIANA: 8-27-2

Phil Dickens, widely recognized as one of Tennessee's all-time greatest tailbacks, tallied an 89-67-11 record during his 16-year coaching career at Wofford, Wyoming and Indiana. He became IU's head coach after leading Wyoming to a Skyline championship and an undefeated season in 1956. At Indiana, Dickens accumulated a 20-41-2 record. His best record came in 1958 (3-2-1), when he guided the Hoosiers to a fifth-place finish in the Big Ten. Dickens earned Midwest Coach of the Year honors that season and finished third in national voting. As a player at Tennessee he was an unanimous All-SEC pick in 1936 and was selected as the Volunteers' outstanding athlete during each of his four years at the school.

John Pont

Southern California. Perhaps more remarkable than the Hoosiers' strong showing against the national champs was the fact that this same team could only muster a 1-8-1 record the previous season, thus making the 1967 Big Ten Champions a true "rags to roses" story. Pont earned unanimous national coach of the year honors that season and was selected as head coach of the East team in the 1968 Coaches' All-American game. Pont's jersey is retired at Miami (Ohio) and in 1969 he was one of six charter members inducted into the school's Hall of Fame.

LEE CORSO • 1973-1982

BIG TEN RECORD AT INDIANA: 28-52-2

Lee Corso took over as head football coach in 1973 after leading the Louisville Cardinals to two Missouri Valley Conference titles in four seasons. At IU, he led the Hoosiers to two winning seasons and a 1979 Holiday Bowl victory over previously unbeaten Brigham Young. Indiana's victory over the Cougars propelled Corso's team to 16th in the UPI poll, the Hoosiers' first top-20 ranking since 1967. While at Indiana, Corso was active with the American Football Coaches Association. He also served on the Ethics Committee, the Rules Committee and the NCAA Public Relations Seminar. During his tenure, he coached in the All-American Bowl and the Japan Bowl. Corso is currently employed by ESPN, where he works as a studio analyst on College Gameday.

SAM WYCHE • 1983

BIG TEN RECORD AT INDIANA: 2-7

Sam Wyche was Indiana's head football coach for only one season prior to leaving for the National Football League. An assistant coach on Bill Walsh's San Francisco 49ers staff that won the Super Bowl following the 1981 season, Wyche was named IU head coach in 1983 and guided the Hoosiers to a 3-8 mark that year. He then left Indiana to become the head coach of the Cincinnati Bengals. He led that squad to the 1988 AFC Championship and a Super Bowl berth against the 49ers. Wyche coached the Bengals for eight seasons before becoming the head coach of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1991. He also coached the Bucs for five seasons, worked as a color commentator on NFL broadcasts and served as the Buffalo Bills' quarterbacks coordinator.

BIG TEN RECORD AT INDIANA: 39-65-1

Bill Mallory served 13 years at the helm of the Hoosiers and compiled a record of 69-77-3. Before joining Indiana in 1984, Mallory coached three other schools to national prominence. While compiling a 165-121-4 (.576) career record at Miami (Ohio), Colorado, Northern Illinois and Indiana, Mallory became one of only seven coaches ever to guide three different programs to top-20 finishes in the national polls. In 1987, Mallory became the first Big Ten coach to be awarded back-to-back coach of the year honors. That year, he led the Hoosiers to an 8-4 record, a second-place finish in the Big Ten, and a Peach Bowl appearance. Mallory led the Hoosiers to six bowl games, including victories in the 1988 Liberty Bowl and the 1991 Copper Bowl. He also led IU to a top-20 ranking in 1988 and finished his career as IU's all-time winningest football coach with 69 wins.

ALL-TIME COACHES

CAM CAMERON • 1997-2001 CAREER RECORD AT INDIANA: 18-37 BIG TEN RECORD AT INDIANA: 12-28

Cam Cameron led the Hoosiers for five seasons and compiled a record of 18-37. He was the second Indiana alum (A.B. Woodford, 1887) to take over at the helm of the IU football program. Cameron played both football and basketball for Indiana in the early 1980s. Prior to joining the Indiana coaching ranks, he served as an assistant coach for the Washington Redskins in the NFL. Cameron brought an explosive offense to Memorial Stadium and a new look to Hoosier football. Indiana took the field with a new oval IU logo. Indiana averaged 23.6 points per game under Cameron's guidance. The Hoosiers enjoyed success as well in the classroom, as IU was recognized by the American Football Coaches Association for its exemplary football graduation rates in each of Cameron's final four seasons.

GERRY DINARDO • 2002-2004 CAREER RECORD AT INDIANA: 8-27 BIG TEN RECORD AT INDIANA: 2-21

In his first season with the Hoosiers, Gerry Dinardo led Indiana to a 3-9 record and a 1-7 mark in the Big Ten, including a 3-3 mark at Memorial Stadium. Among those three wins was a come-from-behind, 32-29, upset of No. 23 Wisconsin. The Hoosiers trailed by 19 points in the third quarter before scoring the final 22 points of the game for the victory. During 2004, the Hoosiers had wins over No. 24 Oregon (30-24) and No. 23 Minnesota (30-21). DiNardo finished his IU career with an 8-27 overall record.

TERRY HOEPPNER • 2005-2006 CAREER RECORD AT INDIANA: 9-14 BIG TEN RECORD AT INDIANA: 4-12

Terry Hoeppner was head coach of the Hoosiers for two years before passing away following a lengthy battle with brain cancer. He will always be remembered as one of the most influential coaches in school history. In just his second season at the helm of the Hoosier program, Hoeppner brought the Hoosiers on the brink of a bowl appearance in 2006. He led the youngest team in the Big Ten (49 true or redshirt freshmen and 72 underclassmen overall), to five victories - its most since the 2001 campaign - and restored an enthusiasm in IU football. The 2006 Hoosiers picked up three Big Ten wins for the first time since 2001, including a 31-28 win over No. 13 (Coaches) Iowa. Earning its final conference victory of the season, the Hoosiers dominated Michigan State, 46-21, on Homecoming to bring the Old Brass Spittoon back to Bloomington for the first time since 2001. Hoeppner made an immediate impact in his first year at the helm of the Hoosier program. Coach Hep rejuvenated an IU fan base that enjoyed a 39-percent increase in per-game attendance, a 46-percent increase in overall season ticket sales and a 110-percent increase in student season ticket sales.

BILL LYNCH • 2007-2010 CAREER RECORD AT INDIANA: 19-30 BIG TEN RECORD AT INDIANA: 6-26

Bill Lynch served at the helm of the Indiana football program from 2007-10. Lynch led the Hoosiers to a 7-6 record and a trip to the Insight Bowl in his first season. He became the only head coach in Hoosier history to guide a team to a bowl game in his debut season. Lynch led Indiana to its most wins since 1993, its first bowl appearance since that same season, and its first Old Daken Bucket victory since 2001. The team's seven victories were the second most for a first-year Indiana head coach, behind only James M. Sheldon, who went 8-1-1 in 1905. IU boasted three All-Americans, three second-round NFL Draft picks, seven overall NFL Draft picks, 10 All-Big Ten selections, one Academic All-American and 74 Academic All-Big Ten honorees in his four seasons. Lynch also went 2-2 in four Old Daken Bucket games.

KEVIN WILSON • 2011- CAREER RECORD AT INDIANA: 1-11 BIG TEN RECORD AT INDIANA: 0-8

Kevin Wilson completed his first season as Indiana head coach in 2011. He earned his first victory against South Carolina State. Wilson spent the 2002-10 seasons at Oklahoma, where he served as co-offensive coordinator and offensive line coach from 2002-05 and as offensive coordinator and tight ends and fullbacks coach from 2006-10. OU played in seven Big 12 Title games in Wilson's nine years, going 6-1 in those appearances. His offenses were vital to accumulating an overall record of 99-24 (.805) during his time in Norman, including seven 10-win seasons.

UNIVERSITY ADMINISTRATION

MICHAEL A. McROBBIE - Indiana University's 18th President

Michael A. McRobbie became Indiana University's eighteenth president on July 1, 2007. In making its unanimous decision to appoint him, the IU Board of Trustees cited McRobbie's extensive record of accomplishment in various senior administrative roles at IU over 10 years as well as his strong academic credentials. They stated that McRobbie's broad expertise in fostering research partnerships and his collaborative leadership style had contributed greatly to enhancing the educational and research missions of the university and to strengthening IU's glorious traditions in the arts.

McRobbie is responsible for IU's eight campus system which has a total budget of around $2.7 billion, and over 5,000 faculty, 11,000 staff, and 100,000 students.

In his Inaugural Address, McRobbie set out a new vision for IU that stressed and reaffirmed IU's fundamental mission of excellence in research and teaching to be achieved through a great faculty, responsive and relevant education, an enhanced global presence, expanded infrastructure, a rededication to the arts and humanities, and new initiatives in engagement and economic development. He expanded on many of these themes and described a year of progress in his 2008 State of the University speech.

McRobbie became IU's vice president for information technology in 1997, and he led the university to national leadership in that field. This leadership was based on the IU Information Technology Strategic Plan, which he initiated and which is now considered a model for institutions across the nation. He also played a major role in the creation of the School of Informatics; directed the development of i-Light, the management of the Internet2 Abilene network and numerous other networks; and founded IU's Pervasive Technology Laboratories, funded in 1999 by a grant of $30 million from the Lilly Endowment—then the largest research grant to IU from a private organization. As president, he has directed the preparation of IU's new IT Strategic Plan. His efforts in information technology were recognized when he was named one of the Premier 100 IT leaders by Computer World Magazine.

In May 2003, McRobbie took on additional responsibilities as vice president for research. His aim was to improve the environment for research at IU by increasing external funding, expanding research space and facilities, and improving research support services. He was instrumental in securing a $53 million grant from the Lilly Endowment for the Indiana Metabolomics and Cytonics Initiative (METACyt)—the largest grant ever obtained at IU Bloomington—and established the highly successful New Frontiers in the Arts and Humanities Program, which supports the creation of major works of art in various genres. He initiated a study of IU's research space needs, which will guide the development of new buildings and facilities under his presidency through the recently completed IU Master Plan, which he initiated.

McRobbie was appointed interim provost and vice president for academic affairs at IU Bloomington in 2006. In that position, he worked to rebuild academic leadership by appointing six new deans and a number of other key senior leaders, helped complete the IU Life Sciences Strategic Plan, further addressed the needs of arts and humanities programs, and oversaw the move of IU Bloomington to become a more selective campus, while ensuring that it remained accessible and affordable to low-income and minority students through a major increase in financial aid.

He also worked to reinvigorate IU's global relationships that support the university's international academic and educational programs. Over recent years he has led university delegations to China, Japan, and Korea, as well as visiting Israel, and has established or renewed cooperative agreements in research and education with several premier universities in those nations. He has also overseen the preparation of IU's International Strategic Plan.

A native of Australia, McRobbie came to IU from the Institute of Advanced Study at the Australian National University (ANU), where he was a professor of information science and chief executive officer of the Cooperative Research Centre for Advanced Computational Systems. He earned a bachelor's degree with first class honors from the University of Queensland and a doctoral degree from ANU. In 2007, the University of Queensland awarded him an honorary Doctor of Science. He was also awarded another Honorary Doctor of Science in 2008 by SungKyunkwan University in Korea.

McRobbie has been an active researcher in computer science and logic over his career. He has been principal investigator on numerous large grants from agencies such as the National Science Foundation, has published a number of books, and has served widely on editorial boards and conference committees.

He has had a substantial involvement in the development of the life and health sciences in Indiana and is a member of the Boards of Clarian Health Partners—one of the largest hospital systems in the United States—and the Riley Children's Hospital, one of America's leading children's hospitals.

He has had extensive experience in working with industry and has led large university/industry joint initiatives in various areas. Outside of the United States, he has had special experience working with industry, research, and government organizations in Asia, especially in Japan, and was a co-founder of the Asia Pacific Advanced Network (APAN) in 1996.

He has held numerous government, research and private sector committee, board, and advisory appointments nationally and internationally.

In addition to serving as IU's top administrator, McRobbie is a professor of cognitive science, computer science, informatics, and philosophy and an adjunct professor of library and information science on the IU Bloomington campus. He is also a professor of computer technology in the Purdue School of Engineering and professor of philosophy both at Indiana University-Purdue University Indianapolis (IUPUI). He recently became the first sitting IU president to be named an honorary member of the Alliance of Distinguished and Titled Professors. Though his academic career has focused primarily on information technology, he has demonstrated a continuing strong interest in and commitment to the humanities and was recently elected an honorary member of the Australian Academy of Humanities.

He holds numerous awards and honors and in 2007 was made a Sagamore of the Wabash by Indiana Governor Mitch Daniels, the highest honor the State can bestow. IU's first lady, Laurie Burns McRobbie, is a native of Michigan. She has worked as a technologist for the last 20 years of her career, most recently serving as the executive director of member and partner relations for Internet2. She is an adjunct faculty member in IU's School of Informatics and also has a background in the humanities and a long involvement in women's issues. At IU she has used this extensive background to promote and advance scientific and mathematical literacy, particularly among groups who have historically been underrepresented in these fields. She has also continued her involvement in women's issues and in community organizations such as Middle Way House.

The McRobbies were both widowed, and they have six children—three each by their first marriages. They are both avid readers, especially of history; they collect art and enthusiastically attend as many concerts, operas, and plays as they can, and both greatly enjoy working out. Both have traveled extensively internationally and enjoy the challenges of new countries and cultures.

ATHLETICS ADMINISTRATION

FRED GLASS - Vice President and Director of Intercollegiate Athletics

Indiana University President Michael A. McRobbie appointed Fred Glass Vice President and Director of Intercollegiate Athletics effective January 1, 2009, after one of the most tumultuous decades in the history of IU Athletics. The fifth athletic director in eight years, Glass was hired to heal and lead a department that had been rocked by the firing of a legendary basketball coach, the untimely death of a beloved football coach, and an infamous major NCAA infractions case that placed the entire department on probation. Since assuming this role, Glass has worked tirelessly to return IU to its rightful place as one of the premier athletics departments in the country.

At the press conference announcing his appointment, Glass set out the four priorities that have been the hallmark of his tenure as athletic director: 1.) play by the rules; 2.) achieve academically and graduate student-athletes; 3.) excel athletically and win championships; and 4.) integrate athletics into the rest of the University. Building on these priorities and working with student-athletes, coaches, faculty and others Glass subsequently unveiled a credo that represents Indiana University Athletics' core values, mission statement, and strategic plan all rolled into one, The Spirit of Indiana: 24 Sports, One Team. It is the standard by which IU Athletics sets priorities, allocates resources, and makes decisions. We are able people of integrity who play by the rules. We reach our highest academic potential and earn Indiana University degrees. We reach our highest athletic potential and win championships. We are unselfish leaders and teammates. We represent Indiana University with passion, appreciation, respect and distinction. We are positive, responsible, inclusive and integrated with our University. We are a part of something bigger than ourselves.

Now in just his fourth year as athletic director, Glass' dynamic and passionate leadership has been the driving force behind his alma mater's return to athletic success consistent with these priorities and values.

To help generate the financial resources necessary to pursue these priorities, Glass has eliminated nearly half of the positions on the senior staff he inherited (4 of 9) freeing up well over a half million dollars; improved private fundraising, including securing the largest gift in the history of IU Athletics: $15 million from Bill and Gayle Cook; renegotiated a lucrative 10-year multimedia rights agreement with Learfield Sports; and negotiated a $3 million agreement to play Penn State at FedEx Field, among other innovative revenue generating initiatives. As a result of Glass's relentless focus on improving the game day football experience in and around Memorial Stadium, football attendance in Glass' first year as AD increased by 32%, the third largest one year percentage increase in average attendance in the country that year and the highest IU attendance since 1992. These attendance gains have been maintained and, in fact, a new attendance record was set in 2010. Again focusing on preserving and improving the game atmosphere in Assembly Hall, in his first year Glass helped to double men's basketball student season ticket sales to the most in the conference-propelling Indiana to the 11th highest total attendance in the country and second highest in the conference. In 2011-2012, men's basketball attendance increased again as IU Athletics sold more student-season tickets (7,632) than any other program in the country and overall attendance ranked ninth nationally.

With the help of these additional resources, Glass has furthered the department's priorities by adding personnel to make IU's compliance staff the second largest in the conference; adding academic advisors to move IU from ninth to third in the conference in student-athlete to academic advisor ratio; building a state of the art, 25,800 square foot, $3 million academic center moving IU from the smallest to the fourth largest (and most modern) academic center in the conference; opening a 25,000 square foot strength and conditioning center, upon completion the largest facility of its kind in the Big Ten - (replacing a facility that ranked last in the conference); opening Cook Hall, the finest basketball development facility and program shrine in the country; and otherwise improving the facilities of all 24 of IU's sports programs. In August 2011, Glass secured IU Board of Trustees approval for construction of a new baseball and softball complex to be located on the athletics campus. Completion of the $19.8 million baseball/softball project is scheduled for the 2013 season. Glass successfully guided IU Athletics off of NCAA probation in November, 2011.

To ensure that the department meets the promise of The Spirit of Indiana, Glass established The Indiana University Department of Intercollegiate Athletics Excellence Academy. The Excellence Academy integrates athletic department and university resources to assess, measure and ensure progress toward specific personal development goals. The Academy fully integrates the athletic department's academic support and life skills development programs, innovative strength and conditioning regimens, advanced sports medicine and athletic training services, expert sports psychology staff, and one of the very few full-time sports nutritionists in intercollegiate athletics, along with cutting-edge resources from other parts of the university. The Excellence Academy is emerging as one of the nation's most innovative and comprehensive student-athlete development programs in the country.

In Glass' tenure, Indiana student-athletes have excelled in the classroom as well as on the playing field. In 2011-2012, the baseball, men's golf and women's tennis teams are among an elite group of Division I sports teams being recognized for scoring in the top 10 percent in their respective sports with their APRs. Men's basketball, men's cross country, men's golf, water polo, women's tennis, men's swimming and diving, and women's swimming and diving had perfect one-year 2011-2012 APR scores of 1.000. The academic success of these teams is fortunately very typical of all IU sports which routinely exceed the NCAA 925 standard by a very large margin. In the 2011-12 school year, 243 Indiana University student-athletes earned Academic All-Big Ten distinction (including 24 football players, the most in school history).

On the field since Glass's arrival, eight IU teams have won conference championships, 18 student-athletes have been named Big Ten Player of the Year in their respective sports (most in the conference), and the department has produced five NCAA individual champions.

In the 2011-2012 school year, nine varsity sports programs finished the year ranked in the nation's top 15. Also in 2011-12, 62 IU student-athletes earned All-America distinction (up from 49 the previous year), track and field coach Ron Helmer and diving coach Jeff Huber were named conference coach of the year in their respective sports, men's tennis and women's water polo garnered the most wins in school history, track and field won the Indoor Big Ten Championship and achieved the highest national ranking in program history, men's basketball enjoyed a dramatic turnaround and went to the Sweet 16, rowing was nationally ranked for the first time in school history, and IU beat Purdue handily to retain the Crimson and Gold Cup.

Glass has also made key coaching hires in his short tenure. In the fall of 2009, Glass hired men's soccer coach Todd Yeagley who went on to win the Big Ten championship and Big Ten Coach of the Year honors in his first season at Indiana in 2010. In December of 2010, Glass hired highly respected and record setting offensive coordinator Kevin Wilson from Oklahoma as Indiana's new head football coach. In 2008, Wilson won the prestigious Broyles Award for being the nation's top assistant coach. In 2012, Glass hired one of the winningest women's basketball coaches in history, Curt Miller, from Bowling Green. In his last eight years at Bowling Green, Miller's teams won the regular season or tournament championship or both every year, and Miller was named MAC Coach of the Year six times.

Under Glass' stewardship, Indiana Athletics has been financially self-supporting. Each year of his tenure the Athletic Department has been financially self-supporting without any special subsidy from the university, tax dollars, or student fees. In fact, the Athletic Department actually pays over $12 million to the University in tuition, room and board, books, and fees for its scholarship student-athletes.

In May 2012, Glass received the Distinguished Alumni Award from IU's Robert H. McKinney School of Law. In April 2010, Glass was presented the Trevor R. Brown Award by the students of the Indiana Daily Student and the Arbutus for his contributions to the experiences of student journalists. Among his other honors and awards, Glass received the Brebeuf Jesuit President's Medal in 2007; The St. Thomas More Society Man for All Seasons Award in 2006; the 2006 Spirit of Service Community Service Award from the Archdiocese of Indianapolis; the 2005 Charles L. Whistler Award from The Greater Indianapolis Progress Committee; the 2004 Fred McCasland Outstanding Alumnus Award (Brebeuf Jesuit Preparatory School); and the National Catholic Education Association Distinguished Graduate Award (St. Thomas Aquinas School in Indianapolis) in 2003.

Glass is a double graduate of Indiana University and had been a well known Indianapolis lawyer and civic leader before being named a vice president and the director of intercollegiate athletics at his alma mater. Born in Indianapolis, Glass earned bachelor's and law degrees from IU in 1981 and 1984, respectively.

Glass played a central role in several major sports-related initiatives in Indianapolis, including negotiating the 30-year agreement to keep the Colts in Indianapolis, developing Lucas Oil Stadium and an expanded Indiana Convention Center, and helping to negotiate the arrangement to regularly bring Final Fours and other major NCAA events to the city. Formerly a partner in the law firm of Baker & Daniels, Glass served as chairman of the firm's management committee and as the volunteer president of the city's Capital Improvement Board. Glass also has served as Chief of Staff to then Governor Evan Bayh, Chairman of then Indianapolis Mayor Bart Peterson's transition team, and in a number of other civic, legal, and sports related positions.

Glass and his wife, Barbara, who Fred met at an IU football game and graduated from IU in 1980, are the parents of four children. They are: Katie, 26, a 2008 IU Kelley School graduate who recently married Tom Askey, also a 2008 Kelley School graduate; Joey, 24 (Marquette University 10) who is attending the Indiana University McKinney School of Law; Connor, 20 (IU class of '14); and George, 17. Fred, Barbara, Katie, and Tom are life members of the IU Alumni Association.

COMPLIANCE

Indiana University is extremely proud of the performance of its athletics teams both in competition and in the classroom. While our student-athletes are extremely talented, they would not reach their full potential without the encouragement and support that Hoosier fans bring to every event. We thank you for your commitment to our programs. Please be aware that many fans may meet the NCAA's definition of a representative of IU's athletics interests (known as a "booster"). Much like our university personnel and student-athletes, boosters must also comply with various NCAA guidelines.

Although the NCAA rulebook is complex, everyone is expected to follow NCAA Bylaws and ask questions when unsure about the application of the rules. Any violation, no matter its size or scope, could affect a student-athlete's eligibility or Indiana University's status with the NCAA. Please help the university avoid these kinds of situations as we strive to continue to support our Hoosier sports programs.

While being a booster has certain privileges, these benefits do not extend to those duties specifically reserved for athletics personnel. ALL recruiting matters should be left to our coaching staffs, and boosters MUST refrain from contacting any potential IU recruits, or their families, coaches or other associated individuals in regards to the prospect's future collegiate enrollment. This includes contacting prospects through the internet or via social networking sites. We encourage you instead to contact the Indiana Department of Athletics, at (812) 855-1966, if you wish to recommend an individual whom you believe could contribute to our fine athletics tradition.

Recent violations at several Division I schools have forced another issue into the spotlight: benefits provided to student-athletes that are not available to the general student body. NCAA rules prohibit student-athletes from receiving any free or discounted products or services that are not otherwise available to all other IU students. Sometimes these "extra benefits" are hard to resist, but maintaining eligibility under these rules requires that our student-athletes receive only those benefits that may otherwise be provided to a normal college student, or through our athletic department as a part of their athletic participation. Please assist us in maintaining our commitment to integrity and compliance by not offering any specials, discounts or free items or services to the IU student-athletes – or recruits.

The NCAA and Indiana University take the rules pertaining to boosters and prospective student-athletes very seriously. It does not matter where contact with a prospect occurs or what means of communication is used to reach out to a prospect for recruiting purposes; it could become a rules violation in any scenario. Prospects and boosters remain bound by these limits until the prospect becomes a regularly enrolled, full-time student at IU, who has either begun practice in his/her sport or started classes for the semester. Any improper contact with a prospect prior to that time or any offer or inducement provided to a prospect or their family is a violation of NCAA regulations and could lead to negative consequences for both Indiana and that prospective student-athlete.

The Department of Athletics would like to thank you for supporting our student-athletes. Much of our success is due to you, our friends and fans. If you have any questions about the regulations applying to boosters, feel free to contact any member of the compliance office. Thanks for complying with the NCAA rules, and GO HOOSIERS!

As members of the media assigned to cover Indiana University Athletics, the IU Compliance Office invites you to review a few topics that apply to you as a media member and to our student-athletes as they compete and learn here on the Bloomington campus.

While many friends of the program may constantly remain interested in the growth of our programs and recruiting efforts of our coaching staffs, NCAA rules prohibit any member of the IU athletics staff from commenting publicly about any prospective student-athletes being recruited by our institution. Similarly, we are prohibited from publicizing any visits made to our campus by prospects, or otherwise making those prospects available for interviews or media comments while they are meeting with our coaches and touring Bloomington. These rules are meant to protect the privacy of these prospects and their families as they go through the recruiting process and to provide the freedom necessary for these recruits to make their college choices without undue influence from external entities. Please respect these rules and the prospect's need for privacy during their recruitment – and our need to stay compliant with NCAA publicity of recruiting rules!

Additionally, as we prepare our student-athletes for life following their collegiate career, many will test the waters in professional sports and make agreements with agents. Under Indiana state law, these agents must register with the Indiana State Attorney General prior to making any contacts with current student-athletes. Additionally, our compliance office requires all agents to register internally, in order to better approve and guide their communications with our outgoing student-athletes. Our student-athletes may not make any verbal or written agreement with an agent if they wish to preserve their collegiate eligibility, so we work to protect those interests while they remain at IU. Please help us be vigilant in our efforts by not involving yourselves in this process, and helping us identify agent activity on our campus when you know of, or see it occurring.

As always, we thank you for your commitment to our programs and to helping us make each student-athlete's experience at IU the best it can possibly be. Your support of our compliance office and these specific rules is a large part of ensuring that IU carries on its tradition of excellence both on and off the playing field. If you have any questions about these, or other, NCAA rules please contact a member of our compliance staff or visit our website at: www.IUHoosiers.com/compliance.

HELP IU ATHLETICS FOLLOW NCAA RULES AND REGULATIONS. PLEASE DO NOT DISTRIBUTE OR REDISTRIBUTE THIS PIECE TO PROSPECTIVE STUDENT-ATHLETES, THEIR FAMILIES OR COACHES.

All photographers working the field must display a photo armband at all times. Armbands can be picked up at ticket booth No. 3 located on the West side of Memorial Stadium. Ticket booth No. 3 opens three hours prior to kickoff.

A photographer's room is located in Room E006 underneath the East stands of Memorial Stadium. Entrance to the photo room may be accessed through the glass doors at the Northeast corner of the field.

Flip cards, wireless internet, food and refreshments will be provided in Room E006.

SIDELINE ACCESS

Only members of the media displaying armbands will have access to the sidelines. Sideline access is generally limited to television and still photographers. Photographers may only shoot between the 25-yard line and the end zone on all corners of the field. Entry to the bench areas is prohibited. Photographers may pass through the restricted bench areas (between the 25-yard lines) by using the first rows of the stands on the East and West sides of Memorial Stadium. We ask that you continue moving through the stands without stopping.

MEDIA PARKING

A media credential also serves as a parking pass for the game. We ask the media to enter through Gate 11 (purple lot) off the State Road 45/46 Bypass.

Should you plan to pick up your credential at media will call, please remember to print out your credential application confirmation e-mail and bring it along with you to show the parking attendant to gain access into the purple lot.

SATELLITE TRUCK PARKING

For news organizations sending a satellite truck to cover a game at Memorial Stadium it is best to enter through Gate 5. Satellite trucks will be allowed to park outside the fence on the South Concourse.

RADIO STATIONS

The fifth level of the Memorial Stadium press box contains two radio booths. One is reserved for the Indiana University Radio Network and the other is reserved for the commercial carrier of the opposing team as designated by the opposition's media relations department. Phone lines have already been installed for the opposition's commercial radio station.

The roof of the press box is the location for both Indiana University's and visiting teams' student radio stations. Student radio stations must make arrangements to have phone lines installed at their own expense prior to the game. The Memorial Stadium press box can accommodate no more than four radio stations providing live broadcasts for the game.

MEDIA HOSPITALITY

Food and refreshments are provided on gameday in the press box.

TELEPHONE LINES

Media outlets must make their own arrangements for telephone lines. If you are looking to order a telephone line, please contact Jeff Keag.

WIRELESS ACCESS

Wireless Internet access is available in the Memorial Stadium press box. A username, password and directions explaining how to use our wireless service will be available in the gameday packet located at your press box seat. If you have any questions or need an additional sheet, please contact a member of the media relations staff, who will be seated in the back row of the press box directly outside the elevator.

SCOUT CREDENTIALS

Credentials are available for professional scouts upon request. Scouts can send requests directly to Jeff Keag or by visiting IUHoosiers.com and clicking on the media services link under "Inside Athletics." A link to apply for credentials will be at the top of the page.

A credential also serves as a parking pass for the game. We ask scouts to enter through Gate 11 (purple lot) off the State Road 45/46 Bypass.

ROAD REQUESTS

Indiana's media contingent is responsible for making its own credential requests for road games.
